GRAND TOURING SUPERYACHTS

The first and only shipyard offering brokerage and charters alongside new construction projects.

“Dynamiq draws on a modern business model that is not restricted by industry stereotypes and provides a wider range of client-driven services,” says Sergei Dobroserdov, Dynamiq’s CEO. “It works perfectly for both sales and charter clients as they can benefit from our knowledge of every nut and bolt that goes into building a superyacht, which means we are well placed to recommend the right pre-owned or charter vessel. By the same token, our experience of the way people use yachts during their charter vacations means we are constantly able to improve our new construction projects to make them even more comfortable and practical.”
